MARKET ANIMAL GENERAL REGULATIONS

1. All market hogs, market lambs, market goats, and market steers must be weighed in and entered by April 7/May 19.
2. A maximum of 2 animals may be sold within Phelps County by the same exhibitor.
3. An exhibitor will be allowed to show in each category but can only sell ONE item in the sale. However, the Overall Grand Champion and Reserve of each species MUST sell.
4. The same market animal will be weighed in, weighed out, shown, sold and delivered to the buyer and/or packer.
5. All market animals must meet their minimum weight requirements at the final weigh in to be eligible to be shown and sold at the Junior Livestock Sale on Saturday.
6. Only market animals will be taken to a packing house from the Grape and Fall Festival Livestock Barn. Exhibitors must be present and assist in loading their market animal.
7. Market steers, market lambs, market goats, meat pens, and market hogs may be sold at this year's auction. A sale order sheet will be made available the day of the sale.

8. To be eligible to sell, exhibitors must be a member of a 4-H Club or FFA Chapter in Phelps County. Approval of the 4-H Leader or FFA Advisor will be necessary before members will be allowed to sell. Only members in good standing are to participate in the sale.
9. Exhibitors will be allowed to sell only one animal at the Livestock Sale.
10. Photos of the buyer and exhibitor will be taken immediately after the sale of the animal at the auction.
**The livestock superintendents and FFA advisors will make the final decision on any rule conflicts and reserves the right to withhold premiums, if necessary.
11. Each exhibitor must abide by the Mo Department of Agriculture Veterinary Division Animal Health Standards for Exhibition.
13. Proof of ownership must be provided with the 4-H leader or FFA Advisor's signature on the entry form. Swine, sheep, goats, poultry and rabbits must be owned 30 days, and cattle 60 days prior to the show.
14. Market exhibitors are expected to attend a barn clean-up either prior to or upon completion of Fall Festival. Exhibitors will schedule their time with their respective 4-H leaders.
15. Each exhibitor will keep their stall(s) clean and provide their own bedding.
16. Animals may begin arriving at 12 p.m. on Thursday of the Festival. All livestock must be on the grounds by Thursday at 7:30 pm. No animals may leave the Festival grounds before 8 p.m. Saturday night, unless released by the Livestock Superintendents and FFA Advisors.. No market exhibitor is to leave the livestock barn until their livestock is loaded and the stalls are clean.
17. All fees must be paid before the animal can be exhibited. Fees for the 2018 Fall Festival Junior Livestock Show and Sale are as follows:

**Fees for market animals below includes the cost of stalls, buyer photos and ultrasound fees if applicable.
